Proceedings

A perusal of the previous order shows that vide order dated 18.4.2018, an IRP has been appointed who has been directed to take over the assets of the respondent and receive respective claims from the creditors. Though, on request of the complainant through counsel, the case was adjourned for this date for seeking further instructions, but again some more time is requested. Since an IRP has already been appointed so, the proceedings before this forum for refund of amount deposited with the respondent cannot proceed. The complainant is directed to file claim before the IRP and the file be consigned to the Registry.
