A show cause notice dated 03.08.2022 was issued to the promoter.

2. On 20.03.2023, the Authority imposed a penalty of ₹1,000/- per day for not filing quarterly progress report on the web portal of Authority.
3. On 08.01.2025, the cumulative penalty worked out to ₹64,14,000/- . The Authority also directed MD/one of the directors to be personally present on the next date of hearing. 4. Vide reply dated 03.02.2025, the promoter informed that they have updated the requisite QPRs on the web portal and requested the Authority to dismiss this suo-moto and waive of the penalty imposed upon them.
5. On 05.03.2025, no one appeared on behalf of the promoter company, therefore, Authority decided to impose cost of one lac. The MD/one of the directors of the promoter company be personally present on the next date of hearing. The promoter has filed online QPRs upto 31.12.2024. Since QPRs upto June 2022 has been uploaded on 31.01.2025, the cumulative penalty from 20.03.2023 till 30.01.2025 works out to ₹70,12,000/- . 6. On 28.05.2025 learned counsel informed that IRP has taken over the project in February 2025 and subsequently by RP in April 2025. The Counsel argued that when the moratorium is imposed, no penalty can be imposed on the promoter to which Authority reiterated its stance that filing of QPRs and applying for continuation of registration are statutory obligations of the promoter and that moratorium is on suits, not on statutory obligations. During the hearing, learned counsel also submitted a letter to bring on record Corporate Insolvency Resolution Process.

7. The Authority on 28.05.2025 directed the RP and respondent promoter to deposit the penalty amount of ₹70,12,000/- and cost of ₹ one lac for non-appearance in the registry of the Authority at least one week before the next date of hearing failing which matter will be sent for execution. However, the promoter has not complied with the directions of the Authority.
8. The Authority on 08.10.2025, granted one last opportunity for the compliance of the orders dated 28.05.2025 a week before the next date of hearing i.e. 14.01.2026.
9. Today no one appeared on behalf of the promoter nor any reply filed. Since substantial period has lapsed and the promoter has failed to comply with the directions of the Authority in depositing penalty amount of ₹70,12,000/- and cost of ₹ one lac, the matter is therefore sent for execution of penalty amount and cost. The promoter is also directed to file QPRs of its real estate project.
