Proceedings-cum-order

The present complaint was filed on 16.12.2025 and an application for dismissal has been filed by the Respondent on 03.07.2026.

The counsel for the complainant submits that the original complainant has expired and seeks time to place on record the legal heirs certificate.

The Authority is of the considered opinion that, in the absence of the legal heir's certificate, the present complaint cannot be proceeded with and is liable to be dismissed at this stage. However, the legal heirs of the deceased complainant are at liberty to file a fresh complaint in accordance with law, along with the death certificate and legal heirs certificate.

In view of the above, the present complaint stands dismissed.

File be consigned to the registry.
