Proceedings

Both the parties put in appearance through their respective counsel through VC.

2. It is stated on behalf of the complainant by Shri P K Ray, Advocate that besides seeking possession of the allotted unit, the delayed possession charges are also being claimed from the respondent. However, this complaint relates to refund of the amount deposited with the respondent besides interest and other charges. Since the earlier relief is not possible in the complaint, so he does not want to proceed with the present complaint.

3. Keeping in view statement made by the complainant through counsel through VC, he is allowed to withdraw the present complaint with liberty to seek relief before the appropriate forum.

4. Complaint stands dismissed as withdrawn with liberty aforesaid.

5. File be consigned to the Registry.
