OFFICE ORDER

As office of the Registrar is vacant now and the cases are not being dealt with. Accordingly, to ensure timely completion of pleadings, the Secretary of the Authority is hereby delegated the powers under Section 81 of the Real Estate (Regulation and Development) Act, 2016 to get the pleadings completed in complaint matters before putting up the cases to the concerned bench for further proceedings. In case no reply is received within the stipulated period after the first notice, the matter will be listed before the Secretary on the date fixed and another opportunity for up to three weeks may be given to the opposite party to file a reply. In case no reply is received even after issuance of second notice for filing reply, then the matter may be listed before the concerned bench for further proceedings/orders.

This issues with the concurrence of the Competent Authority.
