at a meeting of the Board (and not by circular resolution) make such call as it thinks fit upon the Members in respect of all moneys unpaid on the Shares held by them respectively, and each Member shall pay the amount of every call so made on him to the Person or Persons and at the times and places appointed by the Board. A call may be made payable by instalments.

28. Fifteen days notice in writing of any call shall be given by the Board specifying the time and place of payment, and the Person or Persons to whom such call shall be paid.
29. A call shall be deemed to have been made at the time when the resolution authorizing such call was passed at a meeting of the Board.
30. A call may be revoked or postponed at the discretion of the Board.
31. The option or right to make call on Shares shall not be given to any Person except with the sanction of the Company in a General Meeting.
32. The joint-holders of a Share shall be jointly and severally liable to pay all calls in respect thereof.
33. The Board may, from time to time at its discretion, extend the time fixed for the payment of any call, and may extend such time as to all or any of the Members who, the Board may deem fairly entitled to such extension, but no Member shall be entitled to such extension save as a matter of grace and favour.
34. If any Member fails to pay any call due from him on the day appointed for payment thereof, or any such extension thereof as aforesaid, he shall be liable to pay interest of the same from the day appointed for the payment thereof to the time of actual payment at such rate as shall from time to time be fixed by the Board, but nothing in this Article shall render it obligatory for the Board to demand or recover any interest from any such Member.
35. Any sum, which may be the terms of issue of a Share becomes payable on allotment or at any fixed date, whether on account of the nominal value of the Share or by way of premium, shall for the purposes of these Articles be deemed to be a call duly made and payable, on the date on which by the terms of issue the same becomes payable and in case of non-payment, all the relevant provisions of these Articles as to payment of interest and expenses, forfeiture or otherwise, shall apply as if such sum had become payable by virtue of a call duly made and notified.
36. On the trial or hearing of any action or suit brought by the Company against any Member or his representatives for the recovery of any money claimed to be due to the Company in respect of his Shares, it shall be sufficient to prove that the name of the Member, in respect of whose Shares, the money is sought to be recovered appears entered on the register of Members as the holder, at or subsequent to the date at which the money is sought to be recovered, is alleged to have become due on the Shares in respect of such money is sought to be recovered; that the resolution making the call is duly recorded in the minute book; and that notice of such call was duly given to the Member or his representatives used in pursuance of these Articles and that it shall not be necessary to prove the appointment of the Directors who made such call, nor that a quorum of Directors was present at the Board at which any call was made nor that the Meeting at which any call was made duly convened or constituted nor any other matters whatsoever, but the proof of the matter aforesaid shall be conclusive evidence of the debt.

37. Neither the receipt by the Company of a portion of any money which shall from time to time be due from any Member to the Company in respect of his Shares, either by way of principal or interest, nor any indulgence granted by the Company in respect of the payment of any such money, shall preclude the Company from thereafter proceeding to enforce a forfeiture of such Shares as hereinafter provided.
38. The Board may, if they think fit, subject to the provisions of Section 92 of the Act, agree to and receive from any Member willing to advance the same, whole or any part of the moneys due upon the Shares held by him beyond the sums actually called for and upon the amount so paid or in advance or so much thereof, as from time to time exceeds the amount of the calls then made upon the Shares in respect of which such advance has been made, the Company may pay interest at such rate as the Member paying the sum in advance and the Board agree upon, provided that money paid in advance of calls shall not confer a right to participate in profits or dividend. The Board may at any time repay the amount so advanced. The Members shall not be entitled to any voting rights in respect of the moneys so paid by him until the same would but for such payment become presently payable. The provision of this Article shall mutatis mutandis apply to the calls on Debentures.

42. Every such instrument of transfer shall be executed both by transferor and the transferee and the transferor shall be deemed to remain the holder of such Share until the name of the transferee shall have been entered in the register of Members in respect thereof. The Board shall not issue or register a transfer of any Share in favour of a minor (except in cases when they are fully paid up).
43. The Board shall have power on giving seven days previous notice by advertisement in some newspaper circulating in the district in which the Office of the Company is situated to close the transfer books, the register of Members or register of debenture holders at such time or times and for such period or periods, not exceeding thirty days at a time and not exceeding in the aggregate forty-five days in each year, as it may deem expedient.
44. The Company shall incur no liability or responsibility whatsoever in consequence of its registering or giving effect to any transfer of Shares made or purporting to be made by any apparent legal owner thereof (as shown or appearing in the register of Members) to the prejudice of Persons having or claiming any equitable right, title or interest to or in the said Shares, notwithstanding that the Company may have had notice of such equitable right, title or interest or notice prohibiting registration of such transfer, and may have entered such notice, or deferred thereto, in any book of the Company, and the Company shall not be bound or required to regard or attend or give effect to any notice which may be given to it of any equitable right or interest, or be under any liability whatsoever for refusing or neglecting so to do, though it may have been entered or referred to in some book of the Company; but the Company shall nevertheless be at liberty to regard and attend to any such notice and give effect thereto, if the Board shall so think fit.
45. Notwithstanding anything stated elsewhere in these Articles, the Directors shall be entitled to take all necessary steps to ensure compliance with Applicable Law and subject to the provisions of Section 111 of the Act, Section 22A of the Securities Contracts (Regulation) Act, 1956 and the other provisions of Applicable Law, the Board may, at its own absolute and uncontrolled discretion and by giving reasons, inter alia, decline to register or acknowledge any transfer of Shares whether fully paid or not. The right of refusal of the Board shall not be affected by the circumstances that the proposed transferee is already a Member of the Company, but in such cases the Board shall within one month from the date on which the instrument of transfer was lodged with the Company, send to the transferee and the transferor notice of the refusal to register such transfer provided that registration of a transfer shall not be refused on the ground of the transferor being either alone or jointly with any other Person or Persons, indebted to the Company on any account whatsoever, except when the Company has lien on Shares. Transfer of Shares/Debentures in whatever lot shall not be refused.
46. The Company shall keep at its Office the register of Members and therein shall firmly and distinctly enter the particulars of every transfer or transmission of Shares. Subject to the provisions of Section 154 of the Act, the Board shall have power to close the register of Members for such periods, not exceeding forty five days in aggregate in a year and thirty days at any one time, as may seem expedient to them.

47. The existing share holders will have first right to buy the Shares of Shareholders who want to sell his/her shares and only in case of refusal by existing shareholders to buy the Shares, then only Shares can be sold to an outside entity. So Shareholders can not sell his/her shares to outside entity without giving an opportunity to buy the shares to an existing Shareholders.

TRANSMISSION OF SHARES

48. Every holder of Shares in, or Debentures of the Company may at any time nominate, in the manner prescribed under the Act, a Person to whom his Shares in or Debentures of the Company shall vest in the event of death of such holder. Notwithstanding anything contained in any other law for the time being in force or in any disposition, whether testamentary or otherwise, or in these Articles, in respect of such Shares in or Debentures of the Company, where a nomination made in the prescribed manner purports to confer on any Person the right to vest the Shares in, or Debentures of the Company, the nominee shall, on the death of the Shareholders or holder of Debentures of the Company or, as the case may be, on the death of all the joint holders become entitled to all the rights in the Shares or Debentures of the Company to the exclusion of all other Persons, unless the nomination is varied or cancelled in the prescribed manner under the provisions of the Act.

49. Where the nominee is a minor, it shall be lawful for the holder of the Shares or holder of Debentures to make the nomination to appoint, in the prescribed manner under the provisions of the Act, any Person to become entitled to the Shares in or Debentures of the Company, in the event of his death, during the minority.
50. Any Person who becomes a nominee by virtue of the provisions of these Articles upon production of such evidence as may be required by the Board and subject as hereinafter provided, elect, either:
- a) to be registered himself as holder of the Shares or Debentures, as the case may be;
 - b) to make such transfer of the Shares or Debentures, as the case may be, as the deceased Shareholder or Debenture holder, as the case may be, could have made; or

- c) if the nominee, so becoming entitled, elects himself to be registered as holder of the Shares or Debentures, as the case may be, he shall deliver or send to the Company a notice in writing signed by him stating that he so elects and such notice shall be accompanied with death certificate of the deceased Shareholder or Debenture holder and the certificate(s) of Shares or Debentures, as the case may be, held by the deceased in the Company.
51. Subject to the provisions of Section 109 B (3) of the Act and these Articles, the Board may register the relevant Shares or Debentures in the name of the nominee of the transferee as if the death of the registered holder of the Shares or Debentures had not occurred and the notice or transfer were a transfer signed by that Shareholder or Debenture holder, as the case may be.
52. A nominee on becoming entitled to Shares or Debentures by reason of the death of the holder, or joint holders shall be entitled to the same Dividend and other advantages to which he would be entitled if he were the registered holder of the Share or Debenture, except that he shall not before being registered as holder of such Shares or Debentures, be entitled in respect of them to exercise any right conferred on a Member or Debenture holder in relation to Meetings of the Company.
53. The Board may, at any time, give notice requiring any such Person to elect either to be registered himself or to transfer the Shares or Debentures, and if the notice is not complied with within ninety days, the Board may thereafter withhold payment of all dividends, bonuses, interest or other moneys payable or rights accrued or accruing in respect of the relevant Shares or Debentures, until the requirements of the notice have been complied with.
54. Subject to the provisions of these Articles, any Person becoming entitled to Shares in consequence of the death, lunacy, bankruptcy or insolvency of any Member, or by any lawful means other than by a transfer in accordance with these presents, may with the consent of the Board (which it shall not be under any obligation to give) upon producing such evidence that he sustains the character in respect of which he proposes to act under this Article of his title, act, as the holder of the Shares or elect to have some Person nominated by him and approved by the Board, registered as such holder, provided nevertheless, that if such Person shall elect to have his nominee registered he shall testify the election by executing to his nominee an instrument of transfer in accordance with the provisions herein contained and until he does so, he shall not be freed from any liability in respect of the Shares.
55. A Person entitled to a Share by transmission shall, subject to the right of the Directors to retain such dividends or money as hereinafter provided, be entitled to

In case of such issue, regulations 40 to 43 of Table "A" in Schedule 1 to the Act shall apply.

FORFEITURE OF SHARES

57. The notice aforesaid shall:
- (a) name further day (not being earlier than the expiry of fourteen days from the date of service of the notice) and a place or places on and at which such call or installment and such interest and expenses as aforesaid are to be paid; and
 - (b) state that in the event of non-payment on or before the day so named at the place appointed, the shares in respect of which the call was made or instalment is payable will be liable to be forfeited.
58. If the requirements of any such notice as aforesaid are not complied with, any Shares, in respect of which the notice has been given, may, at any time thereafter before the payment required by the notice has been made, be forfeited by the resolution of the Board to that effect. Such forfeiture shall include all dividends declared in respect of the forfeited Shares and not actually paid before the forfeiture
59. When any Shares shall have been so forfeited, notice of the forfeiture shall be given to the Member in whose name it stood immediately prior to the forfeiture, and an entry of the forfeiture, with the date thereof, shall forthwith be made in the register of Members but no forfeiture shall be in any manner invalidated, by any omission or neglect to give such notice or to make any such entry as aforesaid.
60. Any Share so forfeited shall be deemed to be the property of the Company and may be sold, re-allotted or otherwise disposed off on such terms and in such manner, as the Board may think fit.
61. At any time before a sale, re-allotment or disposal as aforesaid, the Board may cancel the forfeiture on such terms, as it thinks fit.
62. A Person, whose Shares have been forfeited, shall cease to be the Member in respect of the forfeited Shares but shall, notwithstanding the forfeiture, remain liable to pay to the Company all moneys, all calls, or installment, interest and expenses, owing in respect of such Share at the time of the forfeiture, together with interest thereon, from the time of forfeiture until payment, at such rate as the Board may determine and the Board may enforce the payment thereof, to any party thereof, without any deduction or allowance for the value of the Shares at the time of forfeiture, but shall not be under any obligation to do so.

63. The forfeiture of a Share involves extinction, at the time of the forfeiture, of all interest and all claims and demands against the Company in respect of the Share and all other rights, incidental to the Share except only such of those rights as by these Articles are expressly saved.
64. A duly verified declaration in writing that the declarant is a Director of the Company, and that certain Shares in the Company have been duly forfeited on a date stated in the declaration shall be conclusive evidence of the facts therein stated as against all Persons claiming to be entitled to the Shares and such declaration and the receipt of the Company for the consideration, if any, given for the Shares on the sale/ or disposition thereof shall constitute a good title to such Shares; and the Person to whom any such Share as sold shall be registered as the Member in respect of such Share and shall not be bound to see to the application of the purchase money, nor shall his title to such Share be affected by any irregularity or invalidity in the proceedings in reference to such forfeiture, sale or disposition.
65. Upon any sale, re-allotment or other disposal under the provisions of the preceding Articles, the certificate or certificates originally issued in respect of the relative Shares shall (unless the same shall on demand by the Company have been previously surrendered to it by the defaulting Member) stand cancelled and become null and void and of no effect, and the Directors, shall be entitled to issue a duplicate certificate or certificates in respect of the said Shares to the Person or Persons, entitled thereto.

LIEN

66. The Company shall have a first and paramount lien upon all the Shares/Debentures (other than fully paid-up Shares/Debentures) registered in the name of each Member (whether solely or jointly with others) and upon the proceeds of sale thereof, for all moneys (whether presently payable or not) called or payable at a fixed time in respect of such Shares and no equitable interest in any Shares shall be created except upon the footing and condition that this Article will have full effect. Any such lien shall extend to all dividends and bonuses from time to time declared in respect of such Shares. Unless otherwise agreed, the registration of a transfer of Shares shall operate as a waiver of the Company's lien, if any, on such Shares/Debentures. The Board may at any time declare any Shares/Debentures wholly or in part to be exempt from the provisions of this clause.

PROCEEDINGS OF GENERAL MEETINGS

67. The Company shall in each year hold a General Meeting as its Annual General Meeting in addition to any other Meetings in that year. All General Meetings other than Annual General Meeting shall be Extraordinary General Meetings. The first Annual General Meeting shall be held within eighteen months from the date of incorporation of the Company and the next Annual General Meeting shall be held within six months after the expiry of the Financial Year in which the first Annual General Meeting was held and thereafter, an Annual General Meeting of the Company shall be held within six months after the expiry of each Financial Year, provided that, not more than fifteen months shall elapse between the date of one Annual General Meeting and that of the next. Nothing contained in the foregoing provisions shall be taken as affecting the right conferred upon the Registrar under the provisions of Section 166(1) of the Act to extend the time within which any Annual General Meeting may be held. Every Annual General Meeting shall be called for on a time during business hours, on a day that is not a public holiday, and shall be held in the Office of the Company or at some other place within the city in which the Office of the Company is situated as the Board may determine and the notices calling the General Meeting shall specify it as the Annual General Meeting. The Company may in any Annual General Meeting fix the time for its subsequent Annual General Meeting. Every Member of the Company shall be entitled to attend either in person or by proxy and the auditor of the Company shall be entitled to attend and to be heard at any General Meeting which he attends on any part of the business, that concerns him as the auditor. At every Annual General Meeting of the Company there shall be laid on the table the Directors' report (if not already attached to the Audited statement of Accounts), the proxy register with proxies and the register of Directors' share holdings of which the latter register shall remain open and accessible during the continuance of the General Meeting. The Board shall cause to be prepared the annual list of Members, summary of the share capital, Balance Sheet and Profit and Loss Account and forward the same to the Registrar of Companies in accordance with Sections 159, 161 and 220 of the Act.
68. The Board may, whenever it thinks fit, call an Extraordinary General Meeting and it shall do so upon a requisition in writing by any Member or Members holding in the aggregate not less than one-tenth of such of the Paid-Up Capital as at the date carries the right of voting in regard to the matter in respect of which the requisition has been made.
69. Any valid requisition so made by Members must state the objects of the Meeting proposed to be called and must be signed by the requisitionists and be deposited at the Office provided that such requisition may consist of several documents in file form each signed by one or more requisitionists.
70. Upon the receipt of any such requisition, the Board shall forthwith call an Extraordinary General Meeting, and if they do not proceed within twenty-one days from the date of the requisition being deposited at the Office to cause a Meeting to be called on a day not later than forty-five days from the date of deposit of the requisition, the requisitionists, or such of their number as represents either a majority in value, of the paid-up share capital of the Company as is referred to in Section 169(4) of the Act, which ever is less, may themselves call the Meeting, but in either case, any Meeting so called shall be held within three months from the date of the delivery of the requisition as aforesaid.

71. Any Meeting called under the foregoing Articles by the requisitionists shall be called in the same manner, as nearly as possible, as that in which General Meetings are to be called by the Board.
72. Twenty-one days notice at least or a shorter notice thereof subject however to the provisions of Sections 171, 190 and 219 of the Act of every General Meeting, Annual or Extraordinary and by whosoever called, specifying the day, place and hour of the Meeting, and the general nature of the business to be transacted thereat, shall be given in the manner hereinafter provided, to such Persons as are under these Articles entitled to receive notice from the Company. Provided that in the case of an Annual General Meeting with the consent in writing of all the Members entitled to vote thereat and in the case of any other Meeting, with the consent of Members holding not less than 95 percent of such part of the Paid Up Capital of the Company as gives a right to vote at the Meeting may be convened by a shorter notice. In the case of an Annual General Meeting, if any business other than
 - a) the consideration of the accounts, balance sheets and reports of the Board of Directors and auditors,
 - b) the declaration of dividend,
 - c) the appointment of Directors in place of those retiring,
 - d) the appointment of and fixing of remuneration of the auditors, is proposed to be transacted then in that event there shall be annexed to the notice of the General Meeting a statement setting out all material facts concerning each such item of business including, in particular, the nature of concern or interest, if any, therein of every Director, and the manager (if any).

Where any such item of special business relates to or affects any other company, the extent of shareholding interest in other company of every Director and the manager, if any, of the Company shall also be set out in the statement if the extent of such shareholding interest is not less than 20 percent of the paid-up share capital of that other company. Where any item of business consists of the according of approval to any document by the Meeting, the time and place where the document can be inspected shall be specified in the statement aforesaid.

73. The accidental omission to give any such notice as aforesaid to any of the Members or the non receipt thereof shall not invalidate the holding of the General Meeting or any resolution passed at any such General Meeting.
74. No General Meeting, Annual or Extraordinary shall be competent to enter upon, discuss or transact any business which has not been mentioned in the notice or notices upon which it was convened.
75. A body corporate being a Member shall be deemed to be personally present if it is represented in accordance with Section 187 of the Act.
76. The Chairman (if any) of the Board shall be entitled to take the chair at every General Meeting, whether Annual or Extraordinary, if there be no such Chairman of the Board, or if at any meeting he shall not be present within fifteen minutes of the time appointed for holding such meeting, or if he shall be unable or unwilling to take the chair, then the Directors present may choose one of their Member to be the Chairman of the meeting. If no Director be present or if all the Directors present decline to take the chair, then the Members present shall elect one of their number to be Chairman.
77. The Chairman with the consent of the Members may adjourn any Meeting from time to time and from place to place in the city in which it is held but, no business shall be transacted at any adjourned Meeting other than the business, left unfinished at the Meeting from which the adjournment took place. When a Meeting is adjourned for more than 30 days, notice of the adjourned Meeting shall be given as in the case of an original Meeting. Save as aforesaid, it shall not be necessary to give any notice of the adjournment or of the business to be transacted at an adjourned Meeting.
78. At any General Meeting a resolution put to vote at the Meeting shall be decided on a show of hands, unless a poll is before or on the declaration of the result of the show of hands, demanded by at least five Members having the right to vote on the resolution and present in person or by proxy, or by the Chairman of the Meeting or by any Member or Members holding not less than one-tenth of the total voting power in respect of the resolution or by any Member or Members present in person or by proxy and holding Shares in the Company conferring a right to vote on the resolution, being Shares on which an aggregate sum has been paid-up on all the Shares conferring that right and unless a poll is demanded, a declaration by the Chairman that a resolution has on a show of hands, been carried unanimously, or by a particular majority, or lost, and an entry to that effect in the minute book of the Company shall be conclusive evidence of the fact, without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour of or against the resolution.
79. In the case of an equality of votes, the Chairman shall, both on a show of hands and at a poll (if any), have a casting vote in addition to the vote or votes to which he may be entitled as a Member.

80. If a poll is demanded as aforesaid, the same shall, subject to these Articles be taken at such time (not later than forty-eight hours from the time when the demand was made) and place in the city or town in which the Office of the Company is for the time being situated and either by open voting or by ballot, as the Chairman shall direct, and either at once or after an interval or adjournment or otherwise, and the result of the poll shall be deemed to be the resolution of the General Meeting at which the poll was demanded. The demand for a poll may be withdrawn at any time by the Person or Persons who made the demand.
81. Where a poll is to be taken, the Chairman of the Meeting shall appoint two scrutinizers to scrutinize the vote given on the poll and to report thereon to him. One of the scrutinizers so appointed shall always be a Member (not being an officer or employee of the Company) present at the Meeting provided such Member is available and willing to be appointed. The Chairman shall have power at any time before the result of the poll is declared to remove a scrutinizer from office and fill vacancies in the office of scrutinizer from such removal or from any other cause.
82. Any poll duly demanded on the election of Chairman of a Meeting or on any question of adjournment shall be taken at the Meeting forthwith.
83. The demand for a poll except on the questions of the election of the Chairman and of an adjournment shall not prevent the continuance of a Meeting for the transaction of any business other than the question on which the poll has been demanded.
84. Subject to the Articles for the time being in force, the quorum for a General Meeting shall be five Shareholders present in Person or by attorney. If the quorum is not present within half hour of the scheduled time for holding of the General Meeting, the Meeting shall be adjourned for two weeks and reconvened at the same time of the day and place and if such day is a public holiday then to the immediately succeeding day which is not a public holiday, and if at such rescheduled Meeting a is not present within thirty (30) minutes of the time appointed for the Meeting, the Shareholders present, being not less than the quorum, if any, prescribed under the Act, shall form the quorum for the General Meeting.

VOTING RIGHTS

85. No Member shall be entitled to vote either personally or by proxy/attorney, at any General Meeting or meeting of a class of Shareholders, either upon a show of hands or upon a poll in respect of any Shares registered in his name on which any calls or other sums presently payable by him have not been paid or, in regard to which the Company has, and has exercised any right of lien.

Provided, however, if any preference Shareholder be present at any Meeting of the Company, save as provided in clause (b) of sub-section (2) of Section 87, he shall have a right to vote only on resolutions placed before the Meeting which directly affect the rights attached to his preference Shares.

87. On a poll taken at Meeting of the Company a Member entitled to more than one vote, or his proxy or other Person entitled to vote for him, as the case may be, need not, if he votes, use all his votes or cast in the same way all the votes he used or may abstain from voting.
88. A Member of unsound mind or in respect of whom an order has been made by any Court having jurisdiction in lunacy may vote whether on a show of hands or on a poll, by his committee or other legal guardian and any such committee or guardian may on poll vote by proxy, if any Member be a minor, the vote in respect of his Share or Shares shall be by his guardian, or any of his guardians, if more than one, to be selected in case of dispute by the Chairman of the Meeting.
89. If there be joint holders of any Shares, anyone of such Person may vote at any Meeting or may appoint another Person (whether a Member or not) as his proxy or attorney in respect of such Shares. The proxy so appointed shall not have any right to speak at the Meeting and, if more than one of such joint holders be present at any Meeting then one of the said Persons so present whose name stands higher on the register of Members shall alone be entitled to speak and to vote in respect of such Shares, but the other joint-holder(s) shall be entitled to be present at the Meeting. Several executors or administrators of a deceased Member in whose name Shares stand shall for the purpose of these Articles to be deemed joint holders thereof.
90. Subject to the provisions of these Articles, votes may be given either personally or by proxy or by attorney. A body corporate being a Member may vote either by a proxy or by a representative duly authorised in accordance with Section 187 of the Act, and such representative shall be entitled to exercise the same rights and powers (including the rights to vote by proxy) on behalf of the body corporate which he represents as the body could exercise if it were an Individual Member.
91. Any Person entitled to transfer any Share may vote at any General Meeting in respect thereof in the same manner, as if he were the registered holder of such Shares, provided that forty eight hours at least before the time of holding the Meeting or adjourned Meeting, as the case may be at which he proposes to vote he shall satisfy the Directors of his right to transfer such Shares and give such indemnity (if any) as the Directors may require or the Directors shall have previously admitted his right to vote at such Meeting in respect thereof.

92. Every proxy (whether a Member or not) shall be appointed in writing under the hand of the appointer or his attorney, or if such appointer is a corporation under the common seal of such corporation, or be signed by an officer or any attorney duly authorised by it, and any Committee or guardian may appoint such proxy. The proxy so appointed shall not have any right to speak at the Meeting.
93. An instrument of proxy may appoint a proxy either for the purpose of a particular Meeting specified in the instrument and any adjournment thereof or it may appoint for the purpose of every Meeting of the Company, or of every Meeting to be held before a date specified in the instrument and every adjournment of any such Meeting.
94. A Member present by proxy shall be entitled to vote only on a poll.
95. The instrument appointing a proxy and the power of attorney or other authority (if any) under which it is signed or a notarized copy of that power or authority shall be deposited at the Office not later than forty eight hours before the time for holding the Meeting at which the Person named in the instrument proposes to vote, and in default the instrument of proxy shall not be treated as valid, 'No instrument appointing a proxy shall be valid after the expiration of twelve months from the date of its execution.
96. Every instrument of proxy whether for a specified Meeting or otherwise shall, as nearly as circumstances will admit, be in any of the forms set out in Schedule IX of the Act.
97. A vote given in accordance with the terms of an instrument of proxy shall be valid notwithstanding the previous death or insanity of the principal, or revocation of the proxy or any power of attorney under which such proxy was signed, or the transfer of the Share in respect of which the vote is given, provided that no intimation in writing of the death or insanity, revocation or transfer shall have been received at the Office before the Meeting.
98. No objection shall be made to the validity of any vote, except at any Meeting or poll at which such vote shall be tendered, and every vote whether given personally or by proxy or by attorney, not disallowed at such Meeting or poll shall be deemed valid for all purposes of such Meeting or poll whatsoever.
99. Notwithstanding any thing contained in the foregoing, the Company shall transact such business, as may be specified by the Central Government from time to time, through the means of postal ballot.
