OF
SWATANTRA LAND & FINANCE
PRIVATE LIMITED

PRELIMINARY

1. Regulations as contained in Table A of Schedule I of the companies Act, 1956 shall apply to the company subject to the following modifications in so far as these modifications are not inconsistent with the provisions of the said companies act, 1956.

PRIVATE COMPANY

2. The company is a private company with in the meaning of section 3 sub-section 1 (iii) of the Companies act, 1956 and accordingly (i) no invitation shall be issued to the public to subscribe for any shares or debentures of the company; (ii) the number of members of the company (exclusive of persons in the employment of the company or persons, who having been formerly in the employment of the company were members of the company while in that employment and have continued to be members after the employment ceased) shall not exceed fifty and (iii) The right to transfer its shares is restricted in the manner laid down hereinafter.

CAPITAL

3. The authorized Share Capital of the Company is Rs. 1,00,00,000/- (Rupees One Crore only) divided into 100000 Equity shares of Rs. 100/- each with power for the company to increase or reduce the said Capital and issue any part of its capital, original or increased, with or without any preference, priority or special privilege or subject to any postponement of rights or to any conditions or restrictions, and so that unless the conditions of issue shall otherwise expressly declare every issue of shares, whether declared to be preference or otherwise, shall be subject to the power hereinbefore contained. Provided always and it is hereby expressly declared that the company shall conform to and observe and continue to conform to and observe all laws, rules and regulation (if any) which may from time to time or at any time, be or are in force for the control and regulation of issues of capital.
4. Any preference shares may be issued on the terms that the same are, or at the option of the company shall be, liable to be redeemed and the rights and privileges, terms and conditions attached to any such preference shares may be altered and dealt with subject to the provisions of Section 80 of the Companies Act, 1956.
5. The shares shall be under the control of the Directors who may allot or otherwise dispose of the same to such persons and on such terms and conditions and either at par or premium and at such time as they think fit and with full powers to give any person or persons the right to call for the allotment of any shares for such consideration as the Directors may see fit.

TRANSFER OF SHARES

6. Subject to article 16 hereof shares may be at any time be transferred by a member to his nominees as defined hereafter or to any other member, but no share shall be transferred by any member to any person who is not a member or nominee except in the case of failure of the company to find a purchaser thereof under the provisions hereinafter contained.
7. The nominee of a member will mean his father, mother, wife, husband, brothers, sisters, sons, daughters, sons-in-law and daughters-in-law.
8. In order to ascertain whether the company can find a member or other person willing to purchase the share or shares proposed to be transferred, the person desiring or proposing to transfer the share or shares (hereinafter called the "Selling Member" which expression when used in these articles, when and so far as the context requires or admits shall be deemed to include and refer to any member, and or any person or persons deriving title under him, by whom a transfer Notice shall have been served, or shall be deemed to have been served under the provisions of these Articles) shall give notice in writing (hereinafter called the "Transfer Notice") to the company that he desires to transfer the same. Such transfer notice shall constitute the company as his Agent for the sale of the share to any person at the "Fair Value". A transfer notice shall not be revocable for two months from the date it is delivered to the company except with the sanction of the Directors.
9. If the company shall, within two months from the date of the receipt of the Transfer Notice find a purchaser (hereinafter called the "purchasing Member") for the share or shares and shall give notice thereof in writing to the selling member, he shall be bound, subject to payment of the "Fair Value" to transfer the share to the Purchasing Member.
10. If the company shall not, within the time prescribed as aforesaid, find a purchaser for the share or shares and give notice in the manner aforesaid the selling member himself shall, at any time within six months afterwards, be at liberty, subject to article 16 hereof, to sell and transfer the share to any person and at any price. After the expiry of six months the Transfer Notice previously given shall be deemed to have lapsed.
11. The director may offer any share specified in any Transfer Notice to such member or other person as may be selected by them as desirable for admission to membership, in such manner in all respects as the directors may think fit.
12. At the Annual General meeting the company shall by resolution, fix the price at which the share of each class for the time being forming part of the capital of the company may be purchased in pursuance of a transfer notice. The sum fixed as aforesaid at the Annual General meeting immediately preceding the service of a Transfer Notice shall for the purpose of articles 9 and 10 above be deemed to be the Fair Value of any share comprised in such notice. Until the Fair Value has been fixed as hereinbefore provided a sum equal to the capital paid up on any share increased or reduced as the case may be by 25 percent of the average of dividends and for loss declared by the company during the number of years that it has been in existence shall be deemed to be the Fair Value of such share.

13. In the event of the selling member failing to carry out the sale of any share which he shall have become bound to transfer as mentioned in Article 9 above, the directors may execute a transfer on his behalf and in his name and may give a good receipt for the purchase price of such share and may register the purchasing member as holder thereof and issue to him a certificate for the same and thereupon the selling member shall cease to be a member in respect of those shares. The selling member shall in such case be bound to deliver up his certificate for the said share and on such delivery shall be entitled to receive the said purchase price without interest and if such certificate shall comprise any shares which he has not become bound to transfer as aforesaid the company shall issue to him a balance certificate for such shares.
14. Any share may be transferred by a member to any child or grandchild, father, mother, brother, sister, wife or husband of such member and any share of a deceased member may be transferred by his executors or administrators to any child, grand-child, son-in-law, father, mother, brother, sister, nephew, niece, brother-in-law deceased wife's sister, widow or widower of such deceased member and share standing in the name of the Trustees of the will of any deceased member be transferred upon any change of trustees to the Trustees for the time being of such will and the restriction in Article 16 hereof shall not apply to any transfer authorised by this article.
15. On the bankruptcy or insolvency of a member, he and all persons deriving title under him shall be deemed to have given on the day of his bankruptcy or insolvency, a transfer notice under Article 8 hereof as to all his shares and to have specified therein the "Fair Value" as the price at which it is desired to transfer the shares and the subsequent proceedings under Article 8 to 13 hereof may be taken upon that footing.
16. The directors may refuse to register any transfer of a share:-
- (a) Where the company has lien on the share.
 - (b) Where it is not proved to their satisfaction that the proposed transferee is a responsible person, provided that this clause shall not apply in the case of transfer of fully paid up shares.
 - (c) Where the directors are of opinion that it is not desirable to allow the proposed transferee (not being already a member) to become a member.
 - (d) Where the proposed transferee is already a member and the directors are of opinion that it is not desirable that he should be allowed to increase his holding.

Provided always that except where the company has a lien on the shares the directors shall not be entitled to refuse to register any transfer of share if after receipt of a transfer notice, they shall for a period of two months from the date of receipt thereof fail or neglect to find purchaser for the shares at its "Fair Value".

TRANSMISSION

17. Transmission of shares on death of a member shall be operative or permissible in respect of more than one survivor so long as the number on such transmission does not exceed the limit of members as mentioned heretofore in Article 2. Otherwise the shares shall be liable to be transmitted to only one of the survivors of the deceased.

26. The Directors to retire in every year shall be those who have been longest in office. As between two or more who have been in office for an equal length of time the Directors to retire shall in default of agreement between them be determined by lot. The length of time a Director has been in office shall be computed from his last election or appointment when he had previously vacated. A retiring director shall be eligible for re-election.

27. Until otherwise determined by a general meeting the qualification of every director shall be his holding shares to the nominal value of Rs. 1,000/-.
28. If any director shall be called upon to go or reside out of India or from one place to another in India on the Company's business or otherwise perform extra service the Board may arrange with him such special remuneration for such service either by way of salary, commission or the payment of a stated sum of money as they shall think fit in addition to or in substitution of his remuneration hereinafter provided.
29. The Directors shall have power at any time and from time to time to appoint a person as an additional director who shall retire from office at the next following annual General meeting, but shall be eligible for re-election.
30. (a) The Company in General Meeting shall from time to time determine the remuneration of each Director (whether by way of salary or commission or participation of profits or partly in one way and partly in another) as the Company thinks fit.
(b) In addition to the remuneration payable to them the directors may be paid all traveling, hotel and other expenses properly incurred by them in connection with the business of the Company.
31. Any casual vacancy occurring on the Board of Directors may be filled up by the Directors but the person so chosen shall hold office only up to the date of next annual General Meeting of the Company.
32. A resolution in writing signed by all the directors and circulated in the manner laid down under section 289 of the Companies Act, 1956 shall be as effective as a resolution passed at a meeting duly called, held and constituted.
33. The remuneration of all the directors for the time being for attending any Board or sub-committee meeting shall be a sum not exceeding Rs. 100 per head for each meeting attended thereof as the directors may determine from time to time. The remuneration as above shall be in addition to the traveling expenses which may be sanctioned by the Directors for payment to directors coming from outstation.
34. Subject to the provisions of section 292 of the Companies Act, 1956 the directors may delegate any of their powers to a Committee consisting of such members (not exceeding their body) as they think fit. Any committee so formed shall act in exercise of the powers so delegated or to any regulations that may be prescribed by the directors.
35. The directors may meet together for the despatch of business, adjourn and otherwise regulate their meetings as they think fit. The Managing Directors or the Chairman shall at any time summon a meeting of the directors by giving atleast 72 hours notice of such meeting.

POWER OF DIRECTORS TO CONTRACT.

36. Subject to the provisions of section 297, 299 and 300 of the Companies Act, 1956 no Directors shall be disqualified by his office as such from contracting with the company either as vendor, purchaser, lessor, lessee, lender, or otherwise, nor shall any such contract or arrangement entered into by or on behalf of the company with any Company or partnership or in which any Director shall be, as a member or otherwise interested be voided, nor shall any Director so contracting or so interested be liable to account to this company for any profit realised by such contract or arrangement by reason only of such Director holding that office or of the fiduciary relation thereby established, but no such Director shall vote in respect of any such contract or arrangement and the nature of his interest must be disclosed by him at the meeting of the directors at which the contract or arrangement is determined or if his interest then exists or in any other case, at the first meeting of the Directors after the acquisition of his interest.
